Project Summary

Objectives

Move it, aims to promote the training of Young workers for the cultural enrichment of the Euro-Mediterranean youngest citizens, dismantling stereotypes that exist towards muslims, based on recognition and respect for diversity, through exchange, dialogue, and active participation in the development of audiovisual projects, which together form a plural awareness campaign, cultural and attractive content for the youth, in order to promote the building of a democratic society based on equality, tolerance and solidarity among Euro-Mediterranean peoples.

The project stems from the need nine social organizations and youth sector in Spain, Germany, Egypt, Greece, Italy, Jordan, Morocco, Poland, Portugal and Spain, to identify new ways of doing WORKING FOR YOUTH EUROMEDITERRANEA. The new realities and cultural challenges posed by new perspectives and ways of approaching problems before we met. In this context it is that this meeting of experts from the youth arises, in order to form us into new ways of doing YOUTH CAMPAIGN to combat hate speech, seizing the opportunities of the Internet and social networks.

The meeting of youth workers, look this way, promote the exchange of experiences, creativity and social innovation applied to the design of a collective awareness campaign, awareness and education with young people from Euro-Mediterranean countries.

Activities

The summary of the planned activities in the meeting will be:

- Promotion of creativity.
- Learning the methodology of Creative Solutions to Social Problems.
- Use of the methodology for the social challenge: dismantling the stereotypes.
- Communication tools.
- X-social factor (campaign presentation).

In total, 16 young people from different countries of origin participate and the profile of these will be:

- Technicians of youth with some type of accreditation that confirms it.
- People belonging to and / or linked to the partner entities.
- People participating in a training and awareness project.
- People with interest or experience in intercultural dialogue issues, fight against hate speech, and coexistence between different cultures and religions.
- All participants will control English.
- Technicians from the entities that express themselves in their organization and that have the facility to share experience and replication in the work environment, such as: secondary schools, youth associations, youth groups ... always in spaces where these technicians, facilitators and / or young promoters can have contact with youth.

In addition, there are four leaders in the field.

Impact

The expected results are the learning of a work methodology to build innovative ideas with positive social impact and communication tools. This learning will enhance the skills and abilities of the youth techniques, in such a way that it will promote a social conscience that is more open to what is different, inclusive and diverse among the active and responsible European citizens of their countries. In addition, there will be a potential multiplier effect, potential digital campaigns and the use of social networks that generate a social impact at European level, against Islamophobia.
