Project Summary

Objectives

Jovesólides, through the La Ventanilla project, aims to promote the training of youth technicians for the cultural enrichment of Euro-Mediterranean citizenship, dismantling the stereotypes that exist towards Muslim people. To this end, it will be based on the recognition and respect for diversity, through exchange, dialogue, and active participation in the development of audiovisual projects, which together will create a social experiment of plural awareness, of cultural content and attractive to young people, The ultimate goal: to promote the construction of a democratic society based on equality, tolerance and solidarity among the Euro-Mediterranean peoples.

The project is born from the need for nine social and youth sector organizations (Egypt, Greece, Italy, Jordan, Lithuania, Portugal, Romania, Tunisia and Spain) to identify new ways of working for Euro-Mediterranean youth. New realities and cultural challenges raise new looks and ways to focus the problems we face. In this context of constant change, this meeting of youth technicians is being held, in order to fight the discourse of leisure, taking advantage of the opportunities of the Internet and social networks.

The meeting of twenty youth workers will seek to encourage the exchange of experiences, creativity and social innovation applied to the collective design of a social experiment for dissemination, awareness raising and education in Euro-Mediterranean countries.

Activities

The summary of the activities planned in the meeting will be:

- Promotion of creativity.
- Learning the methodology of Creative Solutions to Social Problems.
- Use of methodology for the social challenge: disassemble stereotypes.
- Communication tools.
- Social X factor (social experiment creation presentation).

In total, 18 young people from different countries of origin (two per country) participate and their profile will be:

- Technicians of youth with some type of accreditation to confirm it.
- People belonging and / or linked to partner entities.
- People participating in a training and awareness project.
- People with interest or experience in intercultural dialogue issues, fight against hate speech, and coexistence between diverse cultures and religions.
- All participants will control English.
- Technicians of the participating entities that can represent their entity and have the facility to share the experience and replicate what they learned in their work environment, such as: secondary schools, youth associations, youth groups ... always in spaces where these technicians, dynamizers and / or young promoters can have contact with youth.

In addition, two technicians from the leading entity with experience in the methodology used, concepts of Islamophobia and discrimination and communication in social networks participate.

Impact

The expected results are learning a work methodology to build innovative ideas with positive social impact and communication tools. This learning will enhance the skills and abilities of youth techniques, in such a way that it will foster a social awareness that is more open to the different, inclusive and diverse among active and responsible European citizens of their countries. In addition, to have a capacity of multiplier effect, potential of the use of social networks that generates a social impact at European level, against Islamophobia.
